RENEWED REQUEST TO REOPEN PROSECUTION

Honorable Commissioner of
Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

In response to the communication dated June 28, 1993, indicating that the Examiner has suspended prosecution on the above-identified application for a period of six months, please find enclosed herewith a true copy of an Opinion and Order from U.S. District Judge George La Plata awarding the ownership of the above-identified application to NTP, Inc. the assignees of the subject application.

Based on the foregoing situation, the Applicants respectfully request that the prosecution of this application be reopened, and that favorable consideration be granted to the most recent Amendment which was received in the U.S. Patent Office on March 1, 1993.

Respectfully submitted,

March 31, 1994

PROOF OF OWNERSHIP

Honorable Commissioner of
Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

Please find enclosed herewith a copy of the Opinion and Order
Stipulation and Order Dismissing Appeal With Prejudice and the Order dismissing the appeal.

The foregoing documents offer incontrovertible evidence that NTP, Inc. is the sole and exclusive owner of the subject matter of the above identified pending patent application and that all litigation relating to the ownership of the same has been finally concluded.

Respectfully submitted,

HON. GEORGE La PLATA

vs.

GROUP 260

TELEFIND CORPORATION

Defendants.

CLERK U.S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
BY: [Signature] DEPUTY CLERK

OPINION AND ORDER

In January of 1990, Plaintiff, Computer Leasco instituted an action against Defendant Telefind Corporation alleging a breach of a Master Lease Agreement. After obtaining a final judgment in the amount of $3,830,212.03 plus interest, Computer Leasco, as judgment creditor, moved for aid in execution of its judgment. Specifically, it requested an order transferring title of the property owned by the now defunct judgment debtor Telefind Corp to Computer Leasco. On February 5, 1993, this Court entered an order giving Computer Leasco title to Telefind property subject to any existing liens. Soon after entry of the order, NTP, Inc. requested, and was granted, leave to intervene for the purpose of challenging the ownership of six pending patent applications which are commonly known as the B Technology. NTP maintains that it, not Telefind, owns the B Technology. NTP claims ownership by way of an assignment from the inventor of the B Technology and prior Telefind employee, Thomas Campana, Jr., who is presently a shareholder of NTP. It is crucial to note that in this opinion the Court decides
